

Terms and Condition of participating in Gilgamesh 3rd Annual Competition

1. Students (undergraduates and postgraduates) from all universities (governmental and private sector), technicians, and hobbyists are entitled to register in the competition and to submit their projects. No registration fees are required, as registration is free.
2. Submitted projects must include a distinct practical part, in which a microcontroller is used. Theoretical part (thesis) with scientific references is also a must to participate.
3. In case that the submitted project have been accepted, a theoretical report for the project need to be submitted later, it must be according to a specific template. The template is available at t UrukTech's websites.
4. Both individuals and groups are allowed to participate.
5. Registered projects shall be handed to a scientific committee named by several universities in order to be short listed into the final participated projects list.
6. In case of any delay in the project progress after nomination, the project will be excluded from the competition.
7. Participants can't withdraw from the competition after final nominated list is declared.
8. UrukTech is not responsible of any plagiarism of any kind a participant (Individual or group) may commit. In case of plagiarism committed the project will be excluded from the competition.
9. Participant (individual and group) vows to complete their project within scheduled time, so the project shall be presented at the competition exhibition on Gilgamesh University.
10. Participant (individual project) or group representative (group project) vows to attend the competition on the competition date to represent their projects.
11. Winning projects selection and announcement is performed by a scientific committee on the competition date 3/9/2021.
12. Winner shall be awarded wining prize that would be declared later.
13. The awarded prizes shall be presented to the projects not the personnel (individual or group) of the project.
14. Participants reclaim the right to publish their works after the competition comes to an end.
15. UrukTech will be granted the complete rights to publish participated project on its websites.
16. Registration and application submitting are exclusively accepted through UrukTech websites.

www.uruktech.com/techmakers